

Bina Agarwal Prize for Young Scholars in Ecological Economics

Nomination form

(Deadline for receipt of nominations: 15th May 2023)

I. Nominee/Candidate Details (all fields are mandatory)

| | |
|---|-------------------|
| First and Last name: | Date of birth: |
| Nationality: | Preferred gender: |
| Job title (Prof. Dr. Ms. Mr.): | |
| Area(s) of specialization in ecological economics | |
| Institutional affiliation and address: | |
| Address for correspondence (if different from above): | |
| Email | Mobile: |
| Websites, if any: | |

II. Essential documents to be sent with the nomination form (pdf format):

(1) CV of candidate. A summary of the CV with not more than 4 pages.

(2) Endorsement. This should specify why the candidate deserves the award, in two parts:

(a) Academic work:

(b) Policy or community engagement:

(3) List 12 top publications. For papers, give full details of journal or book in which published and for books, the publisher's name. Indicate which publications relate to Developing countries or least developed countries (please citations in Chicago style).

(4) Copies of 6 top papers/publications: Provide e-copies.

III. Nominator Details (all fields are mandatory)

| | |
|--|--|
| First and Last name: | |
| Nationality: | |
| Job title (Prof. Dr. Ms. Mr.): | |
| Institutional affiliation and address: | |
| Address for correspondence if different from above: | |
| Email: | |
| Websites, if any: | |
| In what capacity do you know the candidate and her/his work? | |

IV. Nominations should be sent by email to the prize contact person as below:

The ISEE Secretariat secretariat@isecoeco.org